

MONTPELIER WALK

KNIGHTSBRIDGE SW7

Nestled peacefully in Knightsbridge Village sits this well-proportioned three bedroom, two bathroom freehold mews house.

Montpelier Walk is an exceptional example of refined Knightsbridge living - a townhouse where architectural clarity, material richness, and effortless elegance come together in perfect harmony.

Behind its discreet façade lies a home of remarkable light and volume, where every floor is gently washed in natural daylight - a rarity in such a prime central London setting. The interiors are defined by a sophisticated balance of modern minimalism and quiet luxury, with a carefully curated palette of soft neutrals, warm tones, and tactile finishes throughout.

Italian marble has been used with precision and artistry, most notably in the sculptural curved kitchen island and beautifully detailed staircase - a true centrepiece of the home, combining architectural drama with timeless craftsmanship. Wide-plank oak flooring adds warmth and continuity, grounding the spaces in understated elegance.

The flow of the house has been designed for both calm living and refined entertaining, with open, light-filled rooms that transition effortlessly from one to the next. Every detail has been meticulously considered, creating a sense of ease, cohesion, and elevated simplicity throughout.

Perfectly positioned just moments from Harrods and a short stroll from Hyde Park, this address places you at the very heart of Knightsbridge, where world-class shopping, dining, and green open spaces converge.

Montpelier Walk is a rare offering - a luminous, design-led townhouse that embodies the very essence of modern prime central London living: discreet, luxurious, and impeccably finished.
